

Glimmer Train

July 2015 Very Short Fiction Award

- 1st place: David James Poissant for “Tornado”
2nd place: Adam O’Fallon Price for “Our Celebrity”
3rd place: Mary Kuryla for “Not in Nottingham”

Rest of the Top 25, listed in alphabetical order:

- Krista Asselstine for “Double on the Rocks”
Jack Austin for “I Am Dying, Egypt, Dying”
Sam Axelrod for “This Is the Way It Goes and Goes and Goes”
Alex Bernstein for “Clarity”
Sarah French for “Volunteer”
Shoshana Razel Gordon Guedalia for “Wrestling”
Emory Harkins for “Notes on Gulf”
Nevin Harralson for “The Second Death I Watched”
Elizabeth Henry for “Possum Moves North”
Nathan Hogan for “The Fainting Couch”
Susan Ingram for “Three Little Things”
Natalie Lund for “This Gift of Rocks”
Horatio Potter for “Ashes”
Zen Ren for “Book of Our Dirt”
Rafael Richardson-Carillo for “I Could See Them Burning”
Emily Saso for “Apocrypha”
Anna Schott for “North Fork of the Yuba River”
David Semonchik for “The Bee Story”
William Shih for “Outings”
Elizabeth Solms for “Small Hot Rooms”
James W. Tucker for “The Missing Band”
Michelle Wright for “[wərdz]”

Congratulations, and thank you for letting us read your stories!

Susan Lund

Glimmer Train Press, Inc. • P.O. Box 80430 • Portland, OR • 97280-1430

www.glimmertrain.org 